A SEVERE CONDEMNATION OF THE CHIVINGTON INDIAN MASSACRE.—The Kansas City Journal, February 12th, refers to the Chivington massacre in severe terms. It says:

We have received a letter from a gentleman acquainted with the particulars of the butchery. He says: "These Indians were to all intents and purposes prisoners. They had surrendered themselves, their arms and stock to the commander at Fort Lyon, receiving in return pledges of protection from assault, and promises that warning should be given them in the event of a determination of the authorities to refuse their offers of submission, and to make war on them. The Indians trusted, in child like and foolish simplicity, to the promises. The commander telegraphed to General Curtis that he had come upon a camp of 900 or 1,000 warriors and killed 500 or 600. The number of warriors killed did not exceed fifty, not over one hundred at the utmost. The number of the women and children killed is variously estimated, but in my opinion one hundred and fifty. The whole affair was brutal and cowardly. Some persons argue this is the only way to prevent Indian disturbances. We cannot see what humanity gains by the whites adopting the fiendish brutality and ferocity of the savage. As Chivington is a clergyman by profession his acts are especially infamous.

THE NEW SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.—Mr. Hugh McCullough, who succeeded Mr. Fessenden as Secretary of the Treasury, is the present Controller of the Currency Department, a position he assumed at the urgent solicitation of Mr. Chase. He was for years the President of the State Bank and the Bank of the State of Indiana. To Mr. McCullough the people are indebted for the finished working of the currency system—the law, and all pertaining thereto having been carefully revised by him. As a financier, he holds a prominent position, and no man enjoys to a greater degree the confidence of the great money markets and financiers of the Atlantic. He is cautious in planning, but firm and bold in execution, combining great dignity and suavity of manner with promptitude and a strict adherence to the rules of finance. A man well informed, of liberal and judicious views, he cannot fail but make his mark. As Controller of the Currency he was looked upon in the Treasury Department as second only to the Secretary himself; and it is but a few months since he was offered the Presidency of one of the largest National Banks in New York, at his own salary, which he declined. Mr. McCullough is between fifty and sixty years of age—in the very prime of life.—Alta.

REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONERS.—The House recently passed a bill, says the Tribune, giving a gratuity of $200 a year to each of the five surviving revolutionary pensions in addition to the pension of $100 which they now receive. In January, 1861, there were twenty remaining, seven of whom have since died. The names of the only survivors are as follows: Lemuel Cook, enlisted in Hatfield, Massachusetts, 98 years of age, now residing at Clarendon, Orleans county, New York; Samuel Downey, enlisted in Carroll county, New Hampshire, 98 years of age, now living at Edenburg, Saratoga county, New York; William Hutchins, enlisted in Newcastle, Maine, 100 years of age, residing at Penobscot, Maine; Alexander Maroney, enlisted at Lake George, New York, as a drummer boy, 94 years of age, residing at Yates, Orleans county, New York; James Beartham, a substitute for a drafted man in Southampton county, Virginia, living in Missouri, in his 101st year.

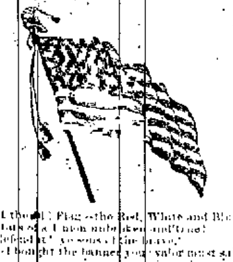
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.



Flag of the free! Flag of the Red, White and Blue,
With the Stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it, ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1865.

By Red Bluffs to Idaho.

The Daily Sacramento Union of March 27, has an article on the route from California to the Northern mines that deserves notice because it contains a few statements that are grossly incorrect, which still appear to have been made in good faith. We do not suppose the Union would wilfully misrepresent facts, or copy with favorable comment the statement of those who do so. There is a natural desire on the part of steamboat owners who carry freight up the Sacramento river, to have all the merchandise destined for Idaho go over that route and make business for themselves. So also have the towns on the upper Sacramento an interest in finding themselves upon such a great line of travel as would naturally flow from California to Idaho by the nearest and most acceptable route. Their interest is second to no other, and the development of that route with success would render their future much more important. There is no doubt that there will be an important trade carried on between Idaho and California by way of the Sacramento river and Red Bluff or Chico. Let them secure as much of it as they can, and build up all the trade and travel they legitimately deserve, without misrepresentation, and we will not object; but such is not the course pursued, as we will proceed to prove.

The Union gives a table of distances, on the route from Chico to Idaho City, furnished by one Capt. Pierce, an old mountaineer, full of visionary schemes and impracticable ideas, which have never won him success, though he was one of the first to prospect the rich mining regions of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Capt. Pierce says the distance to Idaho City from Chico is 560 miles. We are inclined to think it is at least that much, having refreshed our recollection on that point by examining a large map of Oregon, Idaho, Nevada and California, and the same trouble, had it been taken by the editor of the Sacramento Union, would have shown that the distance from place to place, by a direct line drawn on the map, is almost precisely 450 miles, and the allowance of another hundred miles for the devious windings of a road laying through mountain regions and deserts intermingled, would not vary far from the actual length of the road. To Owyhee or Jordan Creek, by air line, from Chico, as we estimated it, is 360 miles, while from Umatilla or Wallula on the Columbia, it is just two thirds of that distance or 240 miles. Reducing it to a familiar comparison, it is just half as far again from Chico to Jordan Creek as from the shipping points on the Columbia, while from Chico or Red Bluff to Idaho City is not quite double the distance it is by the Columbia.

It is an unfortunate thing perhaps for California interest that this map was ever made, but having been made it is advisable that those who write about distances between rival points of trade, should occasionally consult either, and be sure they are right before they go ahead too far and too fast.

The last number we received of the Red Bluff Independent, calls our attention to a correspondent of the Union from Umatilla, who deals forth a fine dish of disappointment at the expense of all Oregon. It seems that an unusually severe winter had interfered with the travel to Idaho from that point; to which, by the bye, he had come much earlier than the OREGONIAN advised, so while winter bound at Umatilla he indulges his spleen for the delectation of California friends at the expense of Oregon capitalists, Oregon roads and all the rest of the Oregonians. This is simply very silly and needs no answer, but we don't see how he could have bettered his case had he been waiting at Red Bluffs, as there has been no indication that travel commenced from there any sooner than from Umatilla. The gentleman's statements are not facts and his ill nature is not in good taste, but all the ill we wish him, is, to prove in his own person what he asserts for truth, to wit: that his expenses may be three or four hundred dollars, and that he may be thirty days on the way, and also that he may have to travel the Red Bluff route once in a while in the future.

As the Red Bluff Independent contains little else than abuse of the Oregon route to Idaho, judiciously mixed with puffs of "Horned Toad route," from that place, always accompanied by misstatements of distances, too-littling their route and overmuching ours (to coin expressions to suit the case), we have this time made a business of noticing them. We expect (more than ever since examining the aforesaid map) that the travel to Idaho will come this way. At the same time we do not propose to represent in any unfair light the interests of the people of Red Bluff. There is no need to do so—the travel comes to us as fully as we could desire. Our intention is simply to keep it, treat it well and make the most of it. Now, Mr. Independent, try again.

CANADIAN IDEAS OF US.—The following rather "hefty" extract is from an editorial in the Toronto Leader, which paper sums up Yankee character with our four years experience of war thrown in, in the following words:

"We do not say that the Yankee is a coward. But he is a very different man from what he was at the time of the Revolutionary war. We lay down this proposition, that met and confronted in an aggressive war, he is impotent for mischief. He is a sensuous pleasure seeking animal in his tastes, habits and enjoyments. Drive him into a corner, he is dangerous, for in his very errors he has a stout heart. But he dislikes toil and hardships. He is without endurance. What Renan was in his fights, the American people—we mean the native Americans, would be in war. They cannot take punishment. At this moment their armies are recruiting from the Irish and the German, and virtually if you cut off this supply you annihilate the army. One defeat in Canada, a vigorous pursuit to destroy their broken forces, and the war would be virtually ended."

He allows inferentially, that our forefathers were of some account, probably learned that by experience, and it may be the same school will give the Canadians a correct idea of their descendants.

THIEF CAUGHT.—Yesterday morning, officer Keeler overhauled a suspicious looking customer named Louis Andreas, who was making off with a big bundle on his back. On making inquiries, it was found that the fellow had nipped, from Fitzgerald's, seven pairs of blankets, one fancy chair cover, two saddles, two pairs of pants, etc. The articles were found in three different houses in town. As the articles had been stolen at different times, and no single theft exceeded thirty dollars, the scamp was sent to the county jail for three months, and when that time is out, he will probably have three months more.—Mountaineer.

PORT ANGELES STILL THE PORT OF ENTRY.—Delegate Cole, just before the adjournment of Congress, presented a Memorial from our Legislature praying for the removal of the Custom House to Port Townsend. A bill was previously introduced for this purpose on which something of a struggle took place; but for the present Port Angeles remains where it is, and is still the Port of Entry.—Pacific Tribune.

Proceedings of the Union Convention of Washington Territory.

[illegible], April [illegible]

Pursuant to the call of the Union Central Committee, the Delegates [illegible]

The Convention was called to order by A. R. [illegible], Chairman of the Central Committee, and on motion [illegible] Edward Eldridge was elected temporary Chairman. R. H. Hewitt was chosen [illegible] Secretary.

[illegible]

On motion [illegible]

AFTERNOON SESSION.

[illegible]

On motion of Wm. McLane, the temporary officers of the Convention were declared permanent. On assuming the duties of Chairman, Mr. Eldridge made some neat and appropriate remarks, which were greeted with frequent interruptions of applause.

The Committee on Resolutions, through their Chairman, James K. Kennedy, made report as follows, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, we deem it the duty of every political party in entering upon a canvass, at all times, but more especially in such a crisis as now marks our history with blood, to define fairly and sincerely the grounds on which they claim the support of the people; therefore, be it resolved:

First, That we hail with gladness those signs which portend the speedy termination of the most [illegible] rebellion that has ever disgraced the world's history, a rebellion against the lawful authority of the only free Government on earth, and for which there was not even a shadow of excuse or palliation.

Second, That while we deplore the fact that the blood of thousands of our best citizens has been poured out like water on the battle field, it was freely offered in defence of our nation's life, and has preserved it; great as the sacrifice was, they have not, therefore, died in vain.

Third, That we most cordially approve of the acts of the general Government for the last four years. A better pilot than Abraham Lincoln never steered the Ship of State safely through more perilous waters. The wisdom which he has displayed in the past, gives us assurance that in the future, all his actions will be regulated by that patriotism which has heretofore animated him.

Fourth, That we believe it to be the duty of all citizens of the United States, without distinction of party, to strengthen the arms of our gallant soldiers and sailors, now in the act of giving the death blow, we trust forever, to treason and rebellion, by uniting in tendering to the general Government a warm and hearty support.

Fifth, That the problem of slavery, whose solution seemed difficult if not impossible to every patriot, has been worked out by Southern politicians, and by them alone. They have committed political suicide, and their peculiar institution is dead and buried beyond all power of resurrection. We heartily approve the adoption by the Congress of the United States of the amendment of the Constitution, whereby slavery is utterly and forever abolished.

Sixth, That the pernicious doctrine of State Sovereignty has been one of the chief causes of the rebellion. It is a political as well as a mathematical absurdity, to say that a part can be greater than the whole. While the individual States are sovereign, as regards each other, all are subordinate to the general Government of the United States of America, in all the attributes which by the laws of nations denote sovereignty, and that while the citizens of the several States owe a measurable allegiance to their respective commonwealths, the allegiance due to the United States is paramount to all other considerations.

Seventh, That we do not believe that Washington Territory is standing still while the world is moving. The success of the Union party elsewhere, ensures its triumph here, if we act harmoniously. Our material interests require that we should be represented in Congress by a friend of the Government. Our interest is therefore coincident with our national duty, and we individually pledge ourselves to do all that lies in our power to ensure the election of the candidate, chosen by this convention, as our standard-bearer.

Pending the adoption of the resolutions, some well-timed and pertinent remarks were made by P. D. Moore and R. K. [illegible].

On motion of P. D. Moore, the convention proceeded to an informal ballot with the following results: L. Holmes, [illegible]; A. A. Denny, [illegible]; J. E. Wyche, [illegible]; L. Evans, [illegible]; Capt. Cox, [illegible].

Motion made to adjourn. Lost.

On motion of P. D. Moore, the convention proceeded to ballot for candidates.

Motion made and carried, that a majority of the votes cast, elect.

The vote was as follows: A. A. Denny, [illegible]; J. E. Wyche, [illegible]; L. Evans, [illegible]; L. Holmes, [illegible].

Thereupon the friends of the opposing candidates joined in making the nomination unanimous.

On motion, the convention proceeded to the election of a Territorial Central Committee: Anderson Cox, Walla Walla; L. Holmes, Vancouver; A. R. Burbank, Monticello; Geo. A. Meigs, Port Madison; C. E. P. Wood, Port Discovery; Wm. McLane, Olympia, and J. T. Browning, [illegible], were elected such committee.

On motion a copy of the proceedings was directed to be furnished to the OREGONIAN, of Portland, the Dalles Mountaineer and the Union papers of the Territory, with a request to publish.

On motion, the Convention adjourned sine die.

EDWARD ELDRIDGE, Chairman.

R. H. HEWITT, L. P. BEACH, Secretaries.

I hereby certify the above and foregoing to be a true copy of the proceedings of the Union Convention.

R. H. HEWITT, Secretary.

Who Influenced the Legislature?

LAFAYETTE, April 4, 1865.

EDITOR OREGONIAN,

Having read the several articles of ex-Senator Harding and General Alvord upon the "Soldiers' Bounty Acts," passed by the last Legislature of Oregon, and perceiving that the gentlemen disputants have quite complacently begged the main question, I beg leave to interpose a few words on behalf of the Legislature.

The gallant General is charged by the grave Senator with "having influenced the Legislature" to pass those acts for what he calls a "military interference," his absence from the coast is suggested, with something of the tone and feeling of [illegible] removing power. Why so, hasty gentlemen? The offence of influencing the late Oregon Legislature may not have been committed by either of you. Remember that there should never be a hanging for murder, unless the corpse be found. If it were necessary, I could assure those gentlemen, "or any other man," that the Legislature influenced itself to pass those acts, and that when first upon their passage they failed, and were reconsidered and debated, and were shown to be just, wise and necessary for the interest of the State, and the responsibility for their passage rests solely upon the Legislature.

There is some excuse for the noble ex-Senator, however, and I hope the late Legislature will pardon him for so readily conceding and assuming the premise that the Legislature was influenced by somebody. He has been away two or three years. He did not know that the Legislators were not first [illegible] and chosen at the State Capital. He doubtless judged from past acquaintance and experience, and yet it would seem that he ought to have known that a Legislature that had [illegible] to [illegible] his seat at Washington, was composed of diametrically opposite material [illegible], and [illegible] such a Legislature might have independence enough to act from its own reason and judgment.

There is a trifling question of dignity between the gentlemen, and between those gentlemen and the Legislature. The Senator seems to forget the "ex" to his title, and [illegible] the "Brig. Gen. of Volunteers" in contrast of the value of their two opinions. Gentlemen, I shall not pretend to decide whether a Senator coming down has a right to sneer at a Brigadier General of Volunteers going up, or [illegible] a Legislature that can be influenced by either of them [illegible]. I am scarcely willing to believe that the General meant, by a mere omission to deny [illegible], that he [illegible] himself as having influenced the Legislature, as charged [illegible].

I have the honor [illegible] to subscribe myself most truly yours, [illegible] G. W. LAWSON.

The London Star of the [illegible] inst., says: "The visit of Gen. McClellan to Liverpool has been of a very short duration. After landing on Sunday morning he proceeded at once to the Adelphi Hotel, where he dined with the U. S. Vice Consul, the Consul, Mr. Dudley, being absent in London at the time, and in the afternoon he took a ramble through the town, accompanied, we understand, by the Vice Consul and Mr. August Belmont, the well known Northern Democrat and agent for the Rothschilds in America. Yesterday (Monday) morning the General, wife, child and servant, left Liverpool for London, en route to Paris and Rome."

DOWNFALL OF RICHMOND—PORTLAND AWAKE.—The dispatches published in the DAILY OREGONIAN of yesterday morning had the effect to confirm our belief that the people of Portland would not let such an occasion for rejoicing, as was afforded by the downfall of Richmond, pass with out some appropriate honor. Early in the day W. E. J. Northrup, Sheriff Stitzel and Chief Engineer Bachtel were industriously at work to set the ball in motion, and at noon the bells of the city were rung, amid the firing of one hundred guns by the Washington Artillery from the Plaza, after which the enthusiasm of the people gradually kindled into a blaze of patriotic rejoicing. At four o'clock P. M. a poster with the following words:

THE DOWNFALL OF RICHMOND.

THE CITIZENS OF PORTLAND are requested to assemble at the corner of Front and Washington streets at 8 o'clock P. M. [illegible] in honor of the Downfall of Richmond.
April 6th 1865. JACOB STITZEL

MILITARY ATTENTION!

COMPANY B, WASHINGTON GUARDS, you are ordered to meet at your armory [illegible] o'clock, to join in the general jubilee. C. S. MILLS, Captain.
April 6th

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

ARE REQUESTED TO MEET at their respective Engine Houses at 8 o'clock P. M., to take part in the torch procession. JOSEPH BUCHTEL, Chief Engineer.
April 6th, 1865.

The Response.—The Christian [illegible] called together the citizens, soldiers, and fire department, who were formed in procession as designated, headed by the Mechanics' Brass Band, and after marching through the principal streets, halted at the Plaza, where Hon. J. H. Mitchell and Judge E. D. Shattuck addressed the crowd in short speeches, quite fitting to the occasion.

INCIDENTS.

During the march bonfires were lighted on the street corners, rockets sent up, and illuminations made in various public and private buildings. The handsomest being the illumination of the New Columbian and What Cheer Hotels, the landlords of which are genuine Irish Americans, who exhibited their gratification at the success of the Federal arms by this display. Mr. Simonds, of the former house, had every light of glass in his extensive front illuminated by a candle, and the effect was very beautiful. Other hotels were lighted, on the balconies and windows of one story. The orchard trees of the M. E. Church parsonage also bore the fruits of rejoicing, being selected by Mr. Rutledge, in lieu of a better place, to burn a few candles. The paint shop of Mr. Egan was ornamented with a handsome transparency, illustrating the confidence of the army and navy in the President, and the Haversack of the army, [illegible] The evening was magnificent, and the streets dry, which gave the Militia, Firemen, and citizens who joined in the march no cause for complaint on the score of mud. We walked in the line by the side of a Member of the Council, who estimated the number on the streets and side walks as being immense, for, every time the procession moved to a parallel street the swaying crowd doubled.

A SHEEP ITEM.—Yesterday afternoon as a good-sized drove of sheep were passing through Front Street, their leader, an old buck of mature years, suddenly diverged from the line of march and plunged into a fashionable tailoring establishment on Front Street. About forty head followed their sagacious chief, and from appearances the knight of the shears had a time of it, as they remained long enough to transact considerable business. Some said, they must have wanted "sheep clothing," others suggested that they needed shearing; while the wisest looking "typo" in the office said they must have been fond of "cabbage" and stopped to investigate the quality on hand. After calling in at a neighboring auctioneer's, where they found no "bidders" for their stay, they took the road again, though with quite a sheepish look, probably at the failure to be properly "measured" at the one place, or handsomely "knocked down" at the other.

GIVING FOR A GOOD CAUSE.—Yesterday quite an interest was manifested by many for the Sanitary and Christian Commission. $[illegible]1 35 in coin, and $138 in Legal Tenders, was raised for the Sanitary Commission. A considerable sum was also raised for the Christian Commission; the entire amount we have not heard. The sum of $3 50 coin, and $87 currency was contributed to the Sanitary cause by the different saloons of the city. If all other branches of trade did as well, the showing would be very good. The sum of $1,544 was remitted yesterday afternoon to Geo. H. Stewart, Chairman of the Christian Commission, N. Y., by Messrs. Ladd & Tilton, being funds in hands of W. S. Ladd from collections here.

WORTH RECORDING.—The answer of a prominent property holder to the question of the Auditor, in fulfilling the orders of the Council in regard to a canvass of what is wanted by the landlords of the city in the way of street improvements: "I helped to elect a Council to do these things in accordance with their own judgment," is worth recording. He was not particular about what kind of improvement was ordered, but did not wish to see filthy streets any longer. Now, that the canvass is made, we presume Front street will be improved, but after all, it will not accord with the heartfelt wish of the owner who cares nothing for the health of the city; nothing for its appearance; nothing for the convenience of his tenant; for nothing but to count his money. The Council will act wisely to do according to the known wants of the community and hasten work of some kind.

COMMERCIAL.—The schooner Alfred Crosby, Capt. Ketcham, sailed for Victoria and Nainamo last evening, taking tow to the mouth of the Willamette. The Falkinburg leaves for San Francisco this morning at 7 o'clock, and the steamer George S. Wright leaves for Victoria and New Westminster at the same hour this evening. The bark Atlantic, commenced receiving cargo last evening, and will probably sail to-morrow afternoon for San Francisco.

HIGHLY DECORATED.—The vessels and steamers in port yesterday raised all the colors they could find available space for, or that the Commanders had possession of. The steamers John H. Couch, Fannie Troup and Senator, representatives of three distinct lines, each appeared handsomely bedecked with their beautiful pennants, jacks and the Stars and Stripes. The bark Atlantic, Captain J. W. Miller, was elegantly decorated, having twenty-one flags floating to the breeze.

THE LADIES of the Sanitary Commission, "God bless them," were about the city yesterday laboring for the good cause, in response to the appeal of the country for our wounded heroes, and raised a considerable amount of money. They visited the workshops, the offices, houses, and every place where a liberal heart could be found willing to aid them in their object of mercy.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.—The farm of the late W. C. Dement, Esq., one mile below Oregon City, on the river, is offered for sale by the Executrix. The last year's profits of the place were over one thousand dollars. There is an elegant dwelling and three thousand fruit trees on the place. It will prove a good investment for a farmer.

NO DISPATCH.—We are unable to furnish any later telegraphic news this morning. The operator was informed yesterday that there was a batch of news ready to be sent over the wires, and had just prepared himself for its reception, when the line suddenly broke and the news failed to come. The break occurred between Jacksonville and Yreka.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The ladies of the Christian Commission advertise that they will honor the downfall of Richmond by giving an entertainment this evening, in the vestry of the Presbyterian Church. The cause and the occasion are both worthy, and the ladies who give their services are deserving of success. Don't forget to read the advertisement and be on hand.

WIND AND DUST.—Yesterday was tolerably windy, blowing fresh from the east and northeast, with clouds of dust filling the streets and the eyes of the populace. It was good for the banners afloat, however.

BOLD ROBBERY.—During the night of Wednesday, some thief stole from the schooner Alfred Crosby, several sacks of flour which had been shipped for Victoria. He left his boots on board in a hasty flight.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Common Council will meet this evening, when the report of the committee to whom was referred the matter of improving Front Street will be heard.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances [illegible] subject. It cheers and lightens the [illegible] [illegible] never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere.

A Real Remedy—Brandreth's Pills.—These Pills expel the Principle of Disease and increase the Principle of Life. Dr. Hull, of Potsdam, who has used them twenty years in his practice, says: "They are a vegetable compound which invigorate, cleanse and purify the blood, correct and regulate all the secretions, and, by purgation, discharge the whole mass of morbid matter from the system without reducing the strength. They are admitted to be the best Purgative and Anti-Bilious Medicine, and have not their equal for Rheumatism, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, etc. etc., and as Purifiers and sweeteners of the blood [illegible]

WISTAR'S BALSAM
OF

HAS BEEN USED FOR NEARLY HALF A CENTURY,
WITH THE MOST ASTONISHING SUCCESS IN CURING
Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, and every affection of the THROAT, LUNGS, AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely one individual in the community who wholly escapes, during a season, from some one, however slightly developed, of the above symptoms—a neglect of which might lead to the last named, and most to be dreaded disease in the whole catalogue. The power of the "balsam gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree over this class of complaints is well known, so great is the good it has performed, and so great the popularity it has acquired.

In this preparation, besides the virtues of the Cherry, there are commingled with it other ingredients of like value, thus increasing its value ten fold, and forming a Remedy whose power to soothe, to heal, to relieve, and to cure disease exists in no other medicine yet discovered. The unequalled success that has attended the application of this medicine in all cases of

has induced many physicians of high standing to employ it in their practice, some of whom advise us of the fact under their own signatures. We have space only for the names of a few of these—

S. H. FINLEY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.
E. BOYDEN, M. D., Exeter, Me.
ALEXANDER HATCH, M. D., China, Me.
R. FELLOWS, M. D., Hill, N. H.
W. H. WEBB, M. D., Cape Vincent, N. Y.
W. B. LYNCH, M. D., Auburn, N. Y.
ABRAHAM SKILLMAN, M. D., Boundbrook, N. J.
H. D. MARTIN, M. D., Mansfield, Pa.

The proprietors have letters from all classes of our fellow citizens, from the halls of Congress to the humblest cottage, and even from beyond the seas; for the fame and virtue of Wistar's Balsam have extended to the uttermost bounds of the earth, without any attempt on our part to introduce it beyond the limits of our own country.

TO CALIFORNIANS AND OREGONIANS.

After October 1, 1863, all genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM of WILD CHERRY for the Pacific Coast will be enclosed in a new wrapper which will bear the printed name of SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, Mass., and J. N. D. PARK, Cincinnati, Ohio, as well as fac-simile of the signatures of "I. BUTTS," "SANFORD & PARK," and H. WISTAR, M. D.

Cure Your Cold, Save Your Lungs.

NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP

HAS CURED THOUSANDS!
And it will Cure You!

"A Cough is generally the effect of a Cold, which has either been improperly treated or entirely neglected. When it proves obstinate there is Always reason to fear the consequences, as this shows a weak state of the lungs, and is often the forerunner of Consumption.—[Buchanan's Domestic Medicine.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by its surprising curative powers.

WHAT KILLED HIM!

Dr. Hall, in his "Journal of Health," speaking of the death of Washington Irving, asks the above question, and adds: "He might have remained with us for some years to come, had it not been for advice, kindly intended, no doubt, but given in thoughtlessness and reckless ignorance.

He Had a Cold!

Which, by some injudicious prescription, had been converted into a chronic." Let me say to Dr. Hall that that prescription was not

NEWELL'S
PULMONARY SYRUP.

KEEP IT IN THE HOUSE, use it freely, give it to your children upon the slightest indications of a Cold, and you will think and speak of it as all do who have become acquainted with its merits.

Richmond's Taken—Hurrah!

Bells and cannon pealing out,
Good news flying all about,
People answer with a shout—
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!

Rebeldom and bravado,
Is now played out; their flag hangs low,
Jeff. must cut for Mexico—
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!

To Him who gives us victory now,
As Union brothers let us bow,
And register our solemn vow,
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!

Freemen join and bow the knee,
Pledged anew to Liberty,
God hath made and keeps us free;
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!

Life to our hopes, death to our fears,
Live Union, live, for endless years,
Give the Old Flag three ringing cheers,
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!
Richmond's taken—Hurrah!

Oregon City, April 5, 1865.

UNION SPEECH IN A REBEL LEGISLATURE.—The great speech of Mr. Harris, delivered in the House of Commons of North Carolina, on the 20th February, is attracting much attention. His argument, favoring a restoration of the Union, is as fearless as it is able. The irrepressible Representatives in the Rebel Congress from Kentucky, Missouri and other States, who have no constituents, and who are assisting to bind the fetters upon North Carolina, are very severely handled by him.

He holds that North Carolina has a perfect right to dissolve her allegiance with the Confederate Government, and enter into a separate negotiation with the United States for peace. He pronounces Secession to be a failure, and says that Sherman is moving forward, through South and North Carolina, to co-operate with Grant in the reduction of Richmond and the capture of Lee's army. That, great as the undertaking may seem, it is not half so great as was that of his march from Dalton to Savannah.

The North, he said, being in the best possible spirits over their present brilliant prospects, will furnish the three hundred thousand men called for by Mr. Lincoln, who will go to the field with the greatest alacrity and soon become excellent soldiers, inspired, as they are, with the hope of speedy success.

He said: Can we prevent the success of our enemies? Can we recover back the majority of the Confederate States which have been taken from us by the armies of the United States? Can we hold our remaining territory? Can we even prevent the fall of Richmond and Petersburg and the capture or destruction of our only remaining army, recruited to the full extent of our white population? Sir, these questions have already been answered by the Government itself in the negative, by its leading organs, the Richmond Sentinel and Richmond Enquirer, who have declared the contest to be too unequal to be longer maintained unless we arm our slaves.

He was opposed to arming the slaves. On this subject, he said, we have ten male slaves at home to one white man. Excite them to frenzy by passing a law to conscript them, and we would have an immediate insurrection. If no insurrection took place they would either go over to the enemy in a body, or turn their guns upon us.

On the subject of reconciliation he said: There are those who think after so much strife and bloodshed that reconciliation is impossible. This is a mistake. All history refutes the idea. The case of England and Scotland, which was in some respects similar to ours, divided as they were into kingdoms and at war for centuries, effected a reconciliation, and Scotland started on a new career of prosperity and glory.

When we take a view of the country which composes the United States, it is difficult to resist the conviction that nature intended it to contain but one great nation. Nature never intended the mighty Mississippi to water, or drain, but one nation. This country can never be divided so as to separate the North Western States from the Gulf States, without reversing an inexorable law of nature.

Mr. Harris is a distinguished lawyer. Jefferson Davis attempted to arrest him recently for making this remarkable speech, but was prevented doing so by the Legislature of North Carolina, which has extended over him the protecting shield of the State.

A REMINISCENCE.—The Grass Valley National relates the following:

Arriving in Sacramento in 1850, from across the Plains, we could not help but wonder (although it was a natural consequence of the immense immigration) at the myriads of people who thronged the streets. Ahead of us on J street, we saw the crowd dividing, as if to make way for something authoritative to pass, and soon we beheld a burley personage of about forty years, with a grizzly head and a face full of energy, striding onward, looking neither to the right nor the left, and bearing on his left arm an enormous basket containing papers. As he went, he exclaimed at the top of his voice, "Here's the California True Delta, the greatest paper ever published in the United States of America, or in any part of the civilized world. Anybody that has money can throw a dollar into that basket and take a copy; and any poor man can take one for nothing." Paper after paper disappeared, and dollar after dollar jumped into the basket. All this time the burley vender disdained to look around to see whether payment was correctly made or not, or how things were going. As unconcerned as if money was a mere matter of moonshine, and it was totally indifferent to him whether he made a thousand dollars or fifty or ten, he moved serenely on, making a broad lane as he went, and stepping to the music of the silver coins which played in his basket. Attracted by the originality of this exceedingly eccentric proceeding, we followed in track of this marvelous disseminator of intelligence, until he had gotten rid of his last paper, and saw him go back in the direction from which he came, with nothing in his basket but a huge pile of silver, which he paid no attention to whatever, although every man that he passed had an opportunity to take out a handful, if he chose. Still curious to see more of this unique way of doing business, we followed on, until our hero arrived at a huge building, into a large room of which he entered as if he were at home, and, opening a drawer, tumbled the contents of his basket into it, as though he had been emptying out of it potatoes or onions.

MORE INDIAN OUTRAGES.—The Visalia Delta, in a letter from Little Lake, chronicles another outrage by Indians in that Valley. On the 27th ult., while Mr. J. N. Rogers, of Owen's Lake, was on his way to this place, with his team, loaded with hay, he was attacked by a party of Indians at a place called Hell's Gate, or Hot Springs, four miles north of the scene of the late massacre, Haweah Meadows. A volley of arrows suddenly came flying through the air, and Mr. Rogers was pierced with six barbs; but, defending himself with his revolver, managed to escape to Little Lake, with the loss of his team. Mr. Rogers has seemed determined, through all our Indian troubles, to stick to the valley, and in fact he is the only man now living at Owen's Lake, with one exception, that being a man in his employ. While men have left their ranches at the Lake, others leaving the valley, Mr. Rogers has been employed building a fort near to his house, which, when at home, causes him to feel perfectly safe.

FELINE INSTINCT.—The following story is told to illustrate the remarkable instinct of the feline tribe. Mr. Slipheimer, the famous Saxon dentist, had a valuable tortoise shell cat that for days did nothing but moan. Guessing the cause he looked into his mouth, and seeing a decayed tooth, he soon relieved it of its pain. The following day there were at least ten cats at his door, the day after twenty, and they went on increasing at such a rate that he was obliged to keep a bull dog to drive them away. But nothing would help him. A cat that had the tooth ache would come any number of miles to see him. However, being one morning very nervous, he accidentally broke the jaw of an old tabby. The news of this spread like wildfire, and not a single cat ever came to him afterwards.

THE RULING PASSION.—A press correspondent says: "When the capture of Savannah was proclaimed, the first exclamation I heard from a man in public life, who is supposed to have but one object to live for—the restoration of the Union and the old flag floating over every inch of Government territory—was 'Heavens! what a pile of cotton! How I would like to have a chance at it!'"

NEW WOOLEN FACTORY.—Articles of incorporation of the Springfield (Lane county) Woolen Manufacturing Company have been filed with the Secretary of State. The capital stock is fixed at $50,000, and the intention is to increase it to $75,000. Paul Brattain, Norris Humphrey, Harvey Small, M. Blanding, R. E. Stratton and ten others are the incorporators. It is designed to erect a mill and commence making woolen goods forthwith.—Statesman.

THE WORLD RENOWNED SINGER SEWING MACHINES!

MANUFACTORY:
282, 184, 186, 188, 190 and 194 Mott street, New York.

MOTTO—"The Singer Sewing Machines are the only Machines that can Sew all kinds of Cloth, and with all kinds of Thread."

Singer's Letter A Family Machine is the best and cheapest Machine in the world for Family Sewing. There is no doubt as to the value of our Machines for manufacturing purposes, but it is only of late that the public began to learn that the essential elements of a Machine best adapted to the heaviest work would also be the elements to be embodied in a Family Machine.

We would ask for our Letter A Machines the attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want Machines for Light Manufacturing Purposes. They embody the principles of the Manufacturing Machines, making, like them, the interlocked stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for FAMILY SEWING and Light Manufacturing purposes, as our Manufacturing Machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINES are valuable in proportion to the number of things they can do well. See what ours can do before making a purchase.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best method of purchasing, can obtain it by sending for a copy of the SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY'S ILLUSTRATED PAMPHLET, which is entirely devoted to the subject. IT WILL BE SENT GRATIS.

LILLIE'S LOCK OPENED In One Minute.

Any parties [illegible] seeing the above mentioned lock, [illegible] opening the same can call at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

Good'street, March 26, 1864.

Messrs. TILTON & McFARLAND, Safe Manufacturers, Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen: From representations made by Mr. Lillie, I was induced to purchase of him one of his

So Called "Fire Proof Safes."

On the 12th of February last, a fire occurred in our block which destroyed a number of buildings, and our own with the rest. We trusted our books, papers and all in the safe. After the fire the so-called "Safe" was taken from the ruins, and on opening it we found that Everything had been Destroyed.

We send you the safe, with what is left of the papers, and you will see that not one of them is legible or strong enough to sustain its own weight. Having the curiosity to know how our neighbors fared in the fire, we noticed McKenzie & Brady just opening their safe (TILTON & McFARLAND'S make) and its contents were found to be

In Perfect Condition.

This led us to further investigation, and we found to our astonishment that from the large amount of combustible material in Messrs. McK. & B.'s cellar—such as lard, pork, &c., their safe was subjected to a much greater heat than that of our own, we being in the cloth business and had but little in the cellar. There was another of Lillie's safes here subjected to the same fire [illegible] however no better than ours.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servants,
(Signed,) GEO. L. CHESBORO & CO.

TILTON & M'FARLAND'S SAFE,

The Only Protection

Against Fire and Burglars.

For the last Fifteen Years

This Safe has been well known in California and the Eastern States. They have resisted all the fires on the Pacific Coast, and we can point with satisfaction to the record that out of one of our Safes by means of Burglars. Their fire and burglar proof qualities are so well known that they need no further recommendation.

No Man ever Lost a Dollar

A good assortment of Tilton & McFarland's Fire and Burglar Proof Safes to be had at 318 Battery Street, San Francisco.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS,
Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,
GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions to the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refreshed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor.—The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD, heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
